

Invitation

The Aloysian Fraternity cordially invites and welcomes you to the 'Workshop on Revised and New Assessment and Accreditation Framework for Higher Education Institutions in India' on 15th and 16th December 2018.

About The College

St. Aloysius 'College, is a premier Autonomous Educational Institute in Madhya Pradesh. The college has been Re-accredited 'A+' by NAAC, Bangalore. It has carved a niche for itself by being the first private college in the state, to have been awarded the highest score of CGPA 3.68/4.00. Situated in sylvan surroundings, the college has a rich green ambience, a green and clear campus and a climate conducive for rigorous training and learning programs. The college focuses on moulding its students towards leadership and thinking in a creative and innovative way so that they can progress and face the challenges and competitions that lie ahead in the global market.

Objective of the Workshop

NAAC has rewritten the Assessment and Accreditation (A&A) methodology, understanding the emerging trends in higher education and the need for reforms for the transformation of the education system. The process is extensive with emphasis on factual data relating to the quantum of quality growth in all aspects of institutional functioning, therefore the objectives of this Workshop are:

1. To appraise to participants of the revised accreditation procedure.
2. To understand the changes in the process and procedure of revised framework of NAAC.
3. To explore and promote more scientific thinking on peer assessment and final outcome of accreditation.
4. To provide hands on training on filling up the online format of the Self Study Report (SSR) viz., Executive Summary, Profile of the college, Quality Indicator Framework, Evaluative Report of the Departments and Data Templates / Documents (Quantitative & Qualitative Matrices).

This will create a thrust of Assessment and Accreditation in Institutions of Higher Education, and will help to identify the various ground level problems and critical areas of concern.
