

Asian Academy for Campus Ministry

Called to Lead, Called to Serve: Vocation, Spirituality, and Building Communities of Hope.

8-18 May 2027

Join campus ministry leaders for

Retreat, reflection, formation, and community, as well as renewing and strengthening your calling in campus ministry.

AACM 2027 begins with a Retreat at Xavier Learning Community, Chiang Rai, followed by a Leadership Program at Payap University, Chiang Mai.

Occasions for

- Reflecting deeply on your vocation
- Building a network of peers across Asia
- Returning home renewed, inspired, and equipped for ministry

Learn • Discover • Grow

- Practical approaches to campus ministry
- Spiritual practices for resilient leadership
- Skills for building interfaith and inclusive communities
- Lasting friendships with colleagues from across Asia

If you are a chaplain, spiritual director, or university faculty or staff member involved in campus ministry, spiritual formation, or counseling we want to hear from you.

Apply

Accepting applications now. Click here to apply by October 15. Decisions announced by November 30, 2026.

United Board will cover local costs, including program fees, meals, and accommodation for ten nights (May 8–18). Travel expenses are the responsibility of the participant or the nominating institution.

(Limited travel subsidy available; contact for more details.)

*"We should always be reminded of the core values of a campus minister: competency in fulfilling one's mission with excellence; courage to stand firm in faith and truth; confidence rooted in God's grace; collaboration with others in building a faith community; clear and meaningful communication; compassion that reflects Christ's love; and a deep, personal connection with God that sustains and guides all aspects of ministry. " an AACM participant

About the United Board

The United Board for Christian Higher Education in Asia is dedicated to strengthening higher education across Asia through collaboration, innovation, and leadership development. Our mission is to work alongside colleges and universities to enhance leadership, nurture creativity, and support learning that forms the whole person—mind, body, heart, and spirit.

Questions? Contact: pelizabeth@unitedboard.org