

SEEDS OF CHANGE

INTEGRATING SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN HIGHER EDUCATION

Join a growing movement of social impacters who inspire the next generation of changemakers!

The Seeds of Change program equips faculty to integrate social entrepreneurship into teaching, learning, and social impact programs, inspiring students to tackle social and environmental challenges and become changemakers. With expert guidance, practical experience, and regional networks, participants turn ideas into action and meaningful impact.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN & DO

-  Integrate social entrepreneurship into curriculum, enhancing teaching/learning & research activities
-  Develop institutional action plans and initiatives
-  Receive expert mentoring and resources for learning and implementing projects
-  Learn through field visits, case studies and lived experiences
-  Build regional networks and foster collaborations in social entrepreneurship

Online Onboarding Session: November 5, 2026

Online Orientation & Preparatory Sessions: November 12, 19 & 26, & December 3, 2026

Onsite Programme: January 26-29, 2027 – Four days

Participation in all sessions is expected

ELIGIBILITY

- Faculty from Higher Education Institutions across Asia.
- Faculty should apply as a team of two.

APPLICATION

- Applications are open until September 30, 2026.
- Successful applicants will be notified by mid-October 2026.

APPLY HERE

Join the movement!
Shape the change!
Create Social Impact!

